DECLARATION

by signing below:

1. You declare that your submitted film, its soundtrack and all footage within it do not breach copyright or intellectual property law and they are fully cleared for cinema, television, internet and festival exhibition. Music must be cleared for worldwide showing and do not infringe copyright laws.
2. You give express permission to the organisers of Ryde Isle of Wight International Film Festival to make, retain and alter a copy of the work submitted for screening, publicity, broadcasting and archive purposes only. Permission is granted to the organisers to screen the entries to third parties as well as broadcast them over mediums, including, but not limited to television broadcasts, internet downloads and mobile phone content. Ryde Isle of Wight International Film Festival will provide details of such usage upon request from the entrant. Copyright remains with the film maker.
